The following passage is for question 1 – 10.

It was chilly late of July afternoon. I participated in camping activity with my friends. It was my first camping. I arrived at camp, my heart was racing. With sore and stiff legs we clumsily got out of our car after being crammed in there for our three and a half hour journey from our hometown to the camping area. I looked around and examined this new place that I was in and it was full of nature.

The first thing my friends and I did when we arrived at the location was to set up our camp. Thankfully I had my friends with me who had gone camping a couple of times before. My friend also taught me to start to campfire. The first night run well. In the next morning we woke up early and started making breakfast. We tossed some eggs. After that, we decided to hike. During the hike, my friends and I were very lucky as we reached an area with a waterfall squeezed between the rocks of the mountain. Even though the water was a bit chilly, we decided to take a deep in it and were definitely not left disappointed. We slept soundly because of tiredness. The third day was our last camping. When we arrived at the beach, we were surprised to see the beautiful view of the beach. After having a quick dip in the ocean, which was really cold and windy, we realized that there were not many people there. We thought that it happened because it was too windy during that time but we finally realized that it was Christmas holiday so almost all of tourists who are used to spending time there went back to their country. After spending few times swimming in the beach, we bought some hot chips at the takeaway store nearby, and we rode our bikes down the beach for a while, on the hard, damp part of the sand.

The next day we visited Labuan Jakung beach. There, we were amazed to see the high wave owned by this beach. Because it was so high that nobody was brave enough to surf on it that time.
