

ABSTRACT

Since the 7th century AD, Malay language has become the language of empire, trade language, the language of instruction in Islam and the lingua franca of clumps of the Malay Archipelago and reached the peak of brilliance as the language of civilization Sultanate of Islam in the Malay Archipelago new that has reached the level of language Among Nations (international), especially with his position as a diplomatic language, lingua franca, the language of commerce of the world, the language of education, language spread of Islam and literary language. From idea Syed Muhammad Naquib al-Attas about the Islamization of the ratings agency, the concept and structure of the Islamic University Malaysia later kingdom Among Nations establish Islamic University Malaysia (UIAM) or the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM) in 1983. In the development of the idea of Islamization of science, Malaysia has graduated royal establishment Among Nations Institute for Islamic Thought and civilization or the International Institute of Islamic Thought and Civilization (ISTAC) which promoted by his own in 1987. The Institute is engaged in the investigation and teaching enterprising student ratings collectively filling the idea of Islamization of science, especially through Malay Literature Education.

Keywords: Islamization of Science, Education Literature Malay Civilization, IIUM